The NACC is a 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable organization Tax ID 84-0743810.
All charitable contributions are 100% tax deductible.

The National Association of Counsel for Children is a non-profit professional membership association dedicated to training and educating child advocates.

The mission of the NACC is to strengthen the delivery of legal services to children; enhance the quality of legal services affecting children; improve courts and agencies serving children; and advance the rights and interest of children.

The NACC is improving the lives of court-involved children by providing child advocates multi-disciplinary training to ensure they are as effective as possible.

Unfortunately membership dues and fees cover only a fraction of our program costs. Please consider sponsoring our single largest annual training event, The National Children's Law Conference.
